I actually don't want any thing (well, maby the ramjet, but still) b\c my computer can't handle mods too well, especially ones that change the w3d. I have 5 skins, and thats all now. 2 of the five are b\c the mammy and flame have glitched skins if I don't use them. I am too lazy to explain why my computer won't let me use mods, but I am attempting to help him b\c I appreciate his work, I think Scrin is good at what he does, but has a quick temper (no offense) and can some times be a little selfish, but usually it is only b\c he had his temper set off by someone else.
