Seriously though, your best bet would've been to just make a new account and be done with it rather than making a second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, etc. account(s) and rigging an "unban me" poll.

But if he did that and didn't do the poll he'd have eventually been caught for ban evading, and without all those other accounts the votes wouldn't have gone his way at all.

So either way, he ain't comin' back any time soon.
