The rotations WILL change but I warn you that, contrary to "popular believe", there's very few decent fanmaps, in my experience. I tested a LOT of fanmaps for our weekly I-CW evenings that we've been having for years now and very often the maps were either bugged, unbalanced, often way too big for a decent game with less than 20 players or simple camp fests.

There's very few fast paced, open maps like the WW maps. If we had the auto downloader today, I doubt I'd find more than 15 new maps actually worth putting in our server's rotation.
