what really amazes me is that on any given map there are at least 4-7 SBH's.

Usually they just wait and pray a nub gets out of there veh so basically 4-7 people on nod do shit. Its amazing that even though NOD is down 4-7 people it still seems to balance.

maybe because GDI goes all the way back to their base to rep unlike NOD? just the fear of NOD's stealth seems to balance the teams out.
