There's a fast and easy way to reinstall just the internet component without having to reinstall the entire thing.

Go into the command & conquer first decade files and delete the internet folder, then start the first decade and click add/remove (in the bottom right corner)

Then choose repair and go through with it, it should reinstall the folder to what it was before.