Hello Queenhunter. Welcome to the internet. As you may have already noticed, the internet has several key differences from offline life.

First, when showing off your (Videos/skins/pictures/etc), people in real life will often humor you and say things like "Oh, that's nice!", even if this is not how they truly feel. On the internet, such practice is rare, and people will usually speak truthfully, and may seem to you as cruel. This is not cruelty--This is honesty. If your (Videos/skins/pictures/etc) suck, you should know, and people will tell you. Do not take this personally. It's the internet, and you are neither the first nor the last to experience this.

Failure to observe these customs usually results in further ridicule, so it's in your own best interest to learn the ways of the internet quickly!
