This isn't just because it's you asking. Every online gaming community will reply in exactly the same manor if it were you or anybody else.

madcowl dont have the jewel case with the key code

So, you've just bought the game, haven't played it one bit and you've already LOST the jewel case? Since when can you lose the case in the time it takes to pickout the CD's and put them into your computer? That's gotta be around 20 seconds, in my opinion that's impossible... hell... that's a miracle.

Just buy it again mate, it'll be less hassle and cost effective if you do.
You'll get no serials from here.
