Those aren't even his. Both the PIC and the second picture are Renegade X assets.

when not, then fuck you all and tnx for killing the renegade

And I don't know about you madrackz, but I don't see a point in making Renegade X an absolute carbon copy of C&C Renegade. There'd be no point. The new Renegade X HUD is modern from a gaming standpoint and yet displays more information than Renegade's original HUD, such as the amount of mines and vehicles your team possesses. A different HUD doesn't make our mod suck - if you think so, then don't play it.
