As for the Japan thing, yeah- Japan was WORSE than Germany in their torture methods and such. Nuking them might seem bad, but letting them continue on as they were wouldn't have been much better.

Japan worse than German?

You know what USA soldiers do to POWs?

USA soldiers rape women POWs even men

USA soldiers torture POWs

USA soldiers don't give POWs food

USA soldiers don't give POWs medicine

USA soldiers order POWs to work like slaves and they never get food or medicine. Maybe slaves are better POWs of USA soldiers because masters will give food to slaves because masters buy slaves and don't want slaves to perish quickly.

USA soldiers never let POWs sleep comfortably.

USA soldiers make cases and punishments for POWs.

If a POW steals food from a USA soldier, they will get a bullet.

If a POW gets an accident while working, they never see a medic.

If a civilian tries to help a POW escape, they will get a bullet.

If a civilian gives food or medicine to a POW and a USA soldier can detect it, they will get a bullet.

If a POW works until they black out, a USA soldier will use a whip or flick until they may perish.
