Good answers on both sides, but i didn't get the replies i was hoping such as:

"Its Clinton's fault" or, how much they will recieve from Obama to make sure the bigwigs get their bonuses...

but seriously, we should thank EA for buying Westwood before the Duke Nukem team got ahold of them...

in closing, if any of us were smart enuf to know how a company can lose $1billion and stay in business we would not be here hangin and chatin with the rest of us poor folk, but out scamming senior citizens our of the SSI checks or spamming the world without stop!
