As being a critic i must say, if this is your work ironwarrior nice job.

However a few things.

I hardly can see what this site supports as being a visitor for the first time. (unique k sorry).

Try to use a bit more game images, so people know what its about.

The banner, looks a bit like you tried to copy windows vista, but failed. All done well though.

EDIT:

Try to get to known by JQuery, you can do some really cool shit with it.
