you are just stupid aren't you. I am not talking about flaming and shit, that is against your own rules.

I am talking about the release of personal private information, that is 1 BREACH of CONTRACT according to your terms and conditions, Second, The very nature of this release is ILLEGAL according to PRIVACY LAWS, and I am sure my attorney will find more .

You are about stupid aren't you? I am not some kid.
I have been online 16 years and I know better.

And If i find he has released this on other sites that is malicious intent,coincspiracy to commit, and my god where do I stop and I am not a lawyer . and NOT PROTECTED BY Amendment you are about stupid.
