Dunno if it fixes loadscreens too, though. I don't see how that's important at all, though.

I currently run APB Gamma using Scripts 4.0 on 1440x900, widescreen. Saberhawk has most definitely done work on widescreen and it is fantastic to play on now, he just needs to finish a bit more work on it and it is 100% awesome.

(works for everything, loadscreen, main menu, ingame, etc)
You made me fking jealous
/me wants 4.0
