We're still discussing some stuff and we're waiting for a few people to confirm they're playing. @radio; We're not sure yet. If shadow-team is short on players, I think it isn't gonna be much of a problem. Most likely we're going to be short on players aswell. But like I said, nothing is sure, yet.

Funny thing is we only have 1 day left, so im hopin' for everybody to confirm today.
