Both.

This is in no way related to rush limbaugh. Look at the site for God's sake. Does that look like a link to rushlimbaugh.com ? No. I don't like the fact that Americans are considered teenagers by these people. We care about what we care about, not what Stephen Chu wants us to care about. I also don't like the fact that it stereotypes teenagers as careless, hurtful people as most of the ones I know don't fit that sterotype.
