I started reading the article. The first thing I read was that it was posted two years ago. I voted never.

Of course, one should never say never, since given an infinite span of time, anything that can happen must happen (Infinity times  $x$  where  $x$  is greater than 0 is always equal to infinity). When I say "never", I mean not in the foreseeable future.

EDIT: Oh, wait. This is a massive bump. Fuck you, archerman.
