ZeLL wrote on Mon, 26 October 2009 18:56as for the 2nd question i do not know how to buy a league and was never interested in buying 1
yes, i've asked that question several times and the answer is always along these lines, if they dare answer at all... not interested, not worth my time/money/trouble.

and yet when someone actually does have the time/money/trouble... myself, whiskey... we get nothing but backchat and ballache from people who could host a league but don't think the community is worth the effort. never forget that because when you've said your very worst about my admin-ness, or even whiskey's, that fact automatically beats it.

ZeLL wrote on Mon, 26 October 2009 18:56lately i have been playing fun wars and im happy playing them but i dont appreciate you lying about me saying i do not want to play in your league because of pointsfix did i mention you specifically? i think the only people i mentioned by name about their reasons for not playing in the league are simpee and clearshot. in both cases i went to the trouble of specifically examining the reasons they gave.

ZeLL wrote on Mon, 26 October 2009 18:56just to clear them up the reasons are i do not agree with quite a few things about where ur going with this league so i choose not to play it, i am happy playing the fun wars and i just cannot simply deal with the drama H2O and you will bring back to this game me? when did i ever play unfairly as a player? when was i biased as an admin? remember you've already tried using the biased admin argument and you were completely wrong, so either think carefully about your argument, or admit you're wrong on this.

ZeLL wrote on Mon, 26 October 2009 18:56last thing i attack your choices you have made because i feel they were wrong and when u pm'd me to explain and then i explained what i thought about it you started to attack me, call names and lose your temper(i did not attack you for your views so why you do it to me?)
this is a euphemism for pointing out the fact that everything you said was wrong. you can either admit it or you can try twisting words around to put someone else at fault... but when you do that you only make yourself look worse. that's a lesson simpee's never learned, maybe you're a bit smarter? we'll see, i guess.

ZeLL wrote on Mon, 26 October 2009 18:56 you seem to think im doing this for simpee but im not which is why i did not fight with you on the pointsfix topic but how you reacted to the topic is what is questionable and everybody on clanwars has said the same

"how i reacted to the topic"? give specifics, please. what topic, how did i react and why was it "questionable"?

if you look earlier in this topic you mentioned simpee and zell won't play just because of the pointsfix it may be clear and simpees reason but it is not mine

i never meant you was unfair as a player i meant there is absolutely no way everybody is going to agree with decisions you make not just now but in the future and i would not like to have to deal with it so id rather not just get involved in the first place

i'm going to admit i was infact wrong on maybe 1 part of my PM but still that is no excuse at all to lose your temper especially after i admitted maybe i saw it differently to you only person who was trying to twist things about was you how you've reacted is by acting like a baby and you ended up whining about why people wont defend you etc and you've gone onto other communities forums and still gone on about your view of what simpee and clear did when clear hasnt bothered posting about it and simpees replies are nothing to do with that topic which happened a month ago only posting pointsfix related posts it was fine a while ago but people just dont want to hear about it anymore cause all you ever did was keep repeating it over and over again it would be nice if you listened to what you said and would just drop it and move on with your league rather then continue to argue
