By the way, shut up about building bars in my topic. They are no kind of cheat and alot of people use them.

They are considered cheating in most communities and on the renegadeforums.

This is a good definition of "Advantage Skin". Bright colored characters/vehicles/weapons are much easier to spot than the default textures. So now we can conclude that bright skins are in fact advantage skins.

You say that you like "a bright colourful (=colorful) renegade". So in fact you do say: I like advantage skins.

No sir, I will not kiss your butt. Also, I would not define those comments as "flaming". A better word for this would be "negative criticism".

That's all.

Have a nice day.
