because they get a lawsuit from EA using the same ren material and plus they would also face a lawsuit from epic games

Your so smart.

Renegade is NOT stealing any content made by EA. They are just using the idea. And, EA has enjoyment of Renegade-X being made.

Also, this was released as a FREE product. So, that means, anything made by it can be released for free. Giving credits to EA and Epic Games are apreciated but selling something made by UDK for money will make you have an issue.
