Personally, I think the US's law is damn retarded with their age of consent laws for most shit... alcohol should be legal at 18, most kids drink by then anyways, and at 18 they're responsible adults as it is. Why not give them the opportunity to drink LEGALLY? When it's legal, you'll actually have LESS douchebag faggots who think they're cool because they're breaking the law by drinking underage.

This way, you'll just have people who don't fucking give a shit either way and only drink because they just want a drink- not because they want to be like "WOOOO YEA IM DRINKIN LOL!!!". Seems to work better for Europe, why the fuck not here?

Doesn't work very well in the UK...

That's because we've had successive generations of failings in the education system, I was lucky enough to have parents willing to give up everything else so we (my siblings and I) could attend a private school. I did attend a state school for the last year and a half of my age 4/5-16 schooling, and the change in attitude was incredible - the state school felt "good" meant a grade C (On a scale G-A*, where A* is highest, and "C" is defined as the mean)... :s
