I'm grateful for Spoony renting those servers for us, but he didn't want to have any part in leading the cw.cc team, and forfeited us against Jelly our first round. I hosted a clanwars server for years and never got a dime, along with countless others. I'm in the process of hosting my own official CW server as well, do I get any money then? Maybe i'm just being greedy though, cuz obviously those servers are an integral part of our league.

Personally I think the prize money should be used as prize money for the cw.cc ladder, or an internal cw.cc tournament like 1v1 rushmaps or something.
