ps. i just know zimmer fag or the likes will be like LOL LETS KEEP BLUESCREEN THNE?!?!
Ha, didn't even comment in this and I'm already getting called a fag.

Anyways, definitely a bug. Evidence aside, it's just buggy in nature. It's also a pretty damn big balance issue- it's giving people who know of it an advantage over those who don't. This is a terrible way for any form of gameplay, and I guarantee Westwood would not have intended for it to be this way.
