If it really is the way you describe it, then it's just an unavoidable tragedy.

It is. Last year a map pack won 1st the Unreleased MOTY Award only because it was for Left 4 Dead. That mod came out recently, and its own community is saying that it is terrible.

Usually Source mods get the most attention in the modding community from die-hard Half Life/Source/Valve fanboys. But hey, C&C is a pretty fanboyish community too, but at least we won't vote in a map pack
