I couldn't agree more.

You put a lot of effort into your work; you even make all new lighting for such a small mesh. Porn is just retarded to have in any game. You should make it realistic with pipes or wiring to some lights on the ceiling. I think the light maps are too much; I liked it more without the red and yellow. You could add lights or whatever to make it more realistic.

I also agree, that's why I deleted those images.

Luckily I can do the lighting in LE for the tunnel, so that saves me a lot of time instead of making them as baked textures(Y)
