No Mario fanboys here that can't resist the nostalgia urge to teach Bowser a lesson emulator style? Operation 4th attempt is underway.

Why is everyone confirming the video being old? I said so in the OP, but that's not the point. Does the guy beat the 2nd level? I didn't watch it all the way as I don't want to spoil the stage. It's hard to believe anyone could beat this game on their first try (127 lives)...this guy is either a speedrunner or he's intentionally falling for traps the first couple attempts.
