I'd just go with unprofessional really. Hell if someone put an email out with Bush as a monkey it'd be just as stupid and unprofessional. But naturally there's the "racist" tinge to it.

But honestly, I don't really care. They can end contracts with whoever the hell they want. It really doesn't bother me.

But I live in Birmingham, Alabama, which (was) pretty much the racist capital of America, so this kind of crap happens ALL THE FUCKING TIME. So I can't really say this even phases me.
