You're nothing more than a cowardly online racist, pretty impressive!

Exactly, most. And there is a great difference in the time factor. But hey I don't care. Most Dutch people my age already joke about the subject. Therefore, black need to get over it as well.

But yeah, because I disagree with the fact that it is ok for a black man to say mean mean black person but not for a white man obviously makes me a racist. Even though I would never use the word, simply because it's a retarded word.

And exactly how many races have been subject to slavery? A lot more then just the blacks. Blacks need to stop playing the race card on a lot of occasions. What that doesn't mean is that white people should feel entitled to use the n-word, especially in the country with the worst history of slavery, the USA. Jim Crow Laws were still in effect 20 years after the Germans left Holland. Zimmer tried to troll by saying that all types of people were subject to discrimination, but can't give any examples. That's exactly the problem with white people using the n-word. We discriminated against others, but were never discriminated against in terms of race/skin color as we've been ruling the world. Black people using the n-word shows ignorance, white people using it shows racism. The we-are-the-racist-world trolling attempt was funny, tho.

George Zimmer spokel have a dream that one day the state of Alabama, whose governor's lips are presently dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, will be transformed into a situation where little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls and walk together and call each other nigg3rs
