Quote:Except I owned the box it was on when Ungy and I started it and took over baddog gaming. I wanted it back after multiply complaints of xperts nazi style leadership. And yea its an awesome mod copying half the features from TT and then completely failing when it lauched.

Fail? It was being tested, and some memory leaks were occurring that had to be found, and still are. It didn't fail, it is still in progress.... It didn't copy anything from TT, if anything, it copied the old fnfall server, with much similar crates and gameplay...mixed with the old atomix mod as well.

Quote:A persons life shapes there personality and adding all that together makes a big batch of fail.

Just because someone is poor doesn't mean they're a bad person. If you honestly believe that, then i don't even know why i'm bothering to argue with you, because you are clearly lost.

Quote:LOL you think because anthrax is a dick it justifies breaking federal internet laws? No. I didn't say he should of broke any laws. I just said that Anthrax deserved it (assuming it's even true), which he completely did. Though I would of gone at it differently.

Quote: I can't believe you honestly think any one deserves there shit to be hacked for next to no reason at all.

Why ask a question, then assume an answer? It's not next to no reason at all neither....the guy lives to torment people, and he's pathetic at it as well.

Most of the people demodded held the community together in commwars and in game. Some played in commwars, yes. It's a sacrifice for a better community....and it's not like there isn't anyone to take their places anyways.

And its funny that it is alive because of Campas mod. Campa who xpert forced out of the community.

You are bringing up past events that really have nothing to do with this one...that was a completely different story.

Quote:Nor have I with you, but when you attempt to slander my community don't expect a cookie and a pat on the back.

I'm yet to say a word about your community.

And sure I can see how you can support the guy who is hated renegade-wide because he gave u VIP in his cool server.

LOL. Like i care about VIP. As i have said before: I would rather not be a mod than be a mod. I like to play care-free more than i like to play for responsibilities.

Since you and Vultima seem to think every single thing was planned well in advance...I wonder why it's taking me so long now? It would have been done weeks ago if that was true.Huh

I have no idea what you are talking about...post logs to prove your point, not release personal information. Release them if you want, i could care less....It really seems like you are attempting to make an ass out of someone who isn't...all because of a demod.
