Good choice. Let not fuck with my host names anymore? Thanks.

Stop making threats and attacking the server then? Thanks.

I don't care how many people hate me. Yay the world of C&C Renegade hates me!

Probably because your used to it.

It's "you're", you mind differentiating between the two?

Used to it? I don't care what people think of me over Renegade, it's that simple. You obviously do though.

First, where is this coming from that I "hate these forums"? When did I ever say that? I don't even remember a time I talked about RenForums. A have about 400 posts and I don't think I have posted 1 thing negative on these forums itself in like forever. But that doesn't matter now does it?

Actually Hate said you disliked them if you read up.

Can you not read. That's an opinion by another person. My question was when did I ever say that.

First off, where did get the information of me being poor? I'm not even near poor at all. I work at McDonalds. Are you implying all Mc. D employees are poor? For a side job, I get paid a lot of money there and it gave me college credits for my business classes in college. I'll take that even if it's from Mc. D. I do other things to make money but I don't have to discuss that since it is my life.

Yea generally they are.. unless they own the franchise itself or they are 15 years old.

First you act like you know about psychology then you single everyone out and degrade everyone who works at McDonalds judging they are poor just because they work for McDonalds or own one? You must be really fortunate just because you're one rich canadian eh? If I had to psychologically analyze you, I would say you are being flat out prejudice and you are spoiled.

I messed with one person's facebook and automatically I hack the world. I only did it to Anthrax because he continuously fucks with me for the last 3 years and I needed to put a scare on him for him to piss off. I gave him his shit back and he knows how I did it. I even told him about Facebook having the worst security ever and it's been proven. Just Google it.

You gave it back because I told him to take legal action. If you are so ashamed of yourself you have to steal someones password and fuck with their personal shit you self esteem must be at a record low. And you say its to teach him a lesson? What are you his mother?

I planned to give it back to begin with. I didn't care about the legal action he kept claiming to do. My self-esteem is just fine tyvm. And I'm not claiming to be his mother so no.

Again another lie. I didn't use IRC. Infact, I don't even know his password. If I used IRC, raven would know since he is a NetAdmin on my network and he can see the services channel.

Whatever you say tough guy.

No one knows my side of the story. And neither do you nor do you know what has lead up to all this. Stop being a hypocrite. You're just making assumptions based on what has happened so far.

I am sure rengirl does.

She doesn't and what does she have to do with it? She hasn't even done anything wrong to anyone and everyone keeps throwing her under the bus along with a few other people.

Basically from what I have seen since I came back is you ban for entirely personal reasons at atomix. You got rid of Campa, the best thing atomix ever had and the reason why it was popular. And you also have become hated by most of your mods and people all through renegade. I remember you when I first gave you access to the box and you set up you cloudyserv on ungy and my clanwars server. You were nothing like this. It seems the power has gone straight to your head and you are running you community in a dictatorship. Why do you think all your mods were about to walk out on you? You don't listen to anyone and you will seek at nothing to get revenge. So do not come on here trying to act like this is all bullshit because you fucking well know the main problem is YOU.

So you admit to judging everything based on what you've seen and opinions instead of knowing the full actual facts. Good, now we're getting somewhere.

Campa got rid of himself. We had entirely different views.

When did I attempt to act like this is "bullshit"? Why do you even bother continuing this debate? You weren't even involved with this place and are only taking advantage of it for your personal gain. My debates should probably be with the former Atomix people, not you.
