sorry caveman, Goz took them down because I violated one of the "pm rules" for this forum. I was thoroughly chastised and browbeaten for doing so.

Yeah I liked that convo, it was cool. So was his with me. One of you is a liar, and really it matters little. The point was you like to read PMs.

Don't imply that I "liked" reading them. I read 3, get over it. Luckily updating the forums got rid of it. Someone told me it could of been PHP coded added into it manually and it got overwritten by the upgrade. But whatever, what's been done is done.

I want to reply sensibly to this, alas I must stick with: "Blah blah blah you read PMs".

Each time you would delete all admin tracks in the Admin CP for the forums. Did you seriously think dippy/Hero/myself never noticed, or talked about it?

I do that all the time. So that really is irrelevant to anything at all. I do that on all the forums I run or administrate for the last 7 years. I just do it to do it.

Read previous reply.

You weren't ahead of me in anything unfortunately. Bitching out Rengirl because she didn't tell you weeks sooner, when you found out last week, was kind of funny. It wasn't her fault.

Nothing was her fault so I wish you and everyone else would stop dragging her into it. And I never bitched at her for anything related to this at all. So stop claiming I did.

That's another untruth. Hit me up for the logs, since I wont be posting them here due to the ToS Gozy showed us. Either you're lying, or she is(wouldn't be the first during all of this you will find). Yeah I'd even give them to you Xpert.

Goztow wrote on Thu, 08 April 2010 13:34To be frank: if they hadn't been banned from Atomix forums, they could have pleaded their cause there instead of here. So they were kinda pushed here...

It was gonna come here anyways no matter what.

Lie. All you needed to do was change your stupidity, and talk. So hard?

I started this flame fest after the bans, this was my outlet. Shit flinging, I do not deny it.

Well I'm glad that you actually admit finally that you started the actual flame fest so I'll give you that.

Read my first post or get a pair of glasses please.

The first salvo was you weeks ago.

In all, I think everyone got their points across. The damage has been done for both sides.

Everyone got a piece of the drama.

A few points were put out there, not all.

The coolest thing out of all this was the spat between yourself and Hawk...although I wonder how much of it was you two trolling? =P
