Shit, I missed where I did that! Use smilies when you're using irony, plz.

Well shit, I'll get right on that!

Disclaimer Of course though...that PM will in fact be faked, unlike anything else I was accused of. Disclaimer

So do you like deep pink or lime green crayon colors used for the pictures? I like the green myself.

Goztow wrote on Fri, 09 April 2010 02:41I got the impression this whole thing turns around a girl... like most wars do!

Negative.

You guys should start a fan club. The ironic part is that Volcom is only posting here because of his past grudges with Xpert, Anthrax is a complete retard, and Manuel was one of the ones demodded. So of course none of you are going to agree with me, or even attempt to see where I'm coming from. Everything I have said so far has not yet been proven wrong at all, and my opinions on the subject come from someone who experienced it all first hand. So besides the people that have hated me for a while now, i really haven't pissed anyone off. Gotta love it. God, do you ever shut the hell up? Go back to doing your sycophantic job please. You've proven nothing here except the fact that you love to speak out of your ass. There are others here doing so as well *cough*Trojan*cough*.
