Obvious that he's cheating here.

Probably the most random post in this thread.

R315r4z0r has been more active than you as of recently, and more contributory to the argument. Unless you're a cheater yourself, or a supporter of Azazel, it's odd that your complaining about someone reasoning. Of course, you could be implying that you think that r315 is cheating, based on the last post he/she made, and I can see myself where you draw that conclusion.

Now, onto the topic:

His triggerbot was obvious in the first video, no one could time it that perfectly like that every time.

Edit:I fixed a grammatical error.
