Troop I'm not sure if you're aware of this ... but none of those people you hold in such high regard actually did anything ... Wyld and hammerh0 were idiots as far as I'm concerned, caused way more drama for what they did. Wyld was an admin in our server and played maybe once every 6 months ... I don't know why you view him as such a god like figure when he really did nothing except come back occasionally and break the rules we had set because he didn't even read the mod forums or anything. He's a mod at st0rm now so you might want to check that server out if you really need to contact him, I'm sure he'll be in IRC not playing.
