Okay.. I read through this, except for the last page, and am mortified..

I don't "hate" troop, I've never been associated with the guy in any way, so there's really no reason for me too hate him. Though, all of the shit he's done is pretty fucking ridiculous.

What I don't get is, why do you constantly, CONSTANTLY, go around thinking that you're the best person ever in Ren? I mean, from what I have heard, and seen, you have lost probably about 1000 1v1's? If not more? And won about a hundredth of that? Lol..

What's even more sad is the fact that you talk like you're so good, on a game that has a whopping 200 active players? Dude, wtf.. This game doesn't really take much skill to play at all, anyway. The game is 8 years old; I think it's time that you move on. I think you have been doing this same thing for years now. I'd be bored as hell lol.

Now, I assume I'm going to get bashed by you after reading my post, read over it but say that you're not even going to read it (points to Anthrax's post above), or you're, more then likely, going to challenge me to a 1v1 saying you're going to "rip my face off." So, before you do that. I have a life; I hardly play this game anymore. Plus, I hardly AOW, either. I mainly snipe (which you will probably give me shit for that, too). I could sit here, and be like you, and gloat about "how good I am at sniping that so many people thought I cheated and I won so many 1v1's." But wait, I wouldn't be like you at all, Imfao.
