how do you climb up leagues? ive been getting the hang of mp starcraft lately and am 9-1 in my last 10 against higher ranked opponents. "even match" seems like another word for top 20 silver and "slightly favored" means gold league even though I'm 3rd place bronze..it's gonna take a while to become #1 as the other guys have had much more games than me. what's the point in being ranked as bronze when the game doesn't put me up against other bronze players anyway?
