wow,

thanks for all the replies And your right reborn, 4 was a total failure imo. It would be ok if you had never played c&c or any other rts maybe, lol. I still play kanes wrath alot but never online, i am a turtle so its only comp stomps for me, lol.

I plan on getting a vent server and recruiting some of my friends if i can get them away from wow for a second, lol. To me, I have never had as much fun in a video game as having your friends in a apc, on vent or ts ,heading over to blow up their pp, lol.

Also, I own my own computer business which specializes in gaming rigs, so if anyone needs any hardware advice, help, or a opinion on what hardware to buy I will be glad to help in anyway I can.

Have a good week all, and thanks again for the warm welcome
