lol...now YOU'RE the one trolling, if you suddenly started playing again and would like a game, please PM me and I'd be more than willing (your map + choice of side even).

@ethenal, shouldn't have mentioned anything in this first place I guess but im not the only person here who knows about it (their just smarter for keeping quiet I guess, while I tried to calm down some of these "doomsday" fears)

@liquid, after losing 11-0 in a topic you made countless posts in yet failed to play me in a single game, do you really want to repeat that massacre?
