@liquid, its pretty clear you have no idea what your talking about, have never been any good at this game, nor know how to even run a server....I'd say save your breath.

@spoony, yes thats exactly my point...if this ladder is instated democratically, then retards like liquid will just come up/argue for retarded ideas as to how it should work. I know ignorance might be bliss, but im saying those who know what they are talking about should be the ones designing this whole thing for the betterment of all (regardless if they see it as that way or not).
