If you do, I'll be making both an XDCC channel (#renfiles) and a site (renfiles.com). If you want your maps on this site and channel please reply and I'll go ahead and all the files you've made. If you do not want certian files made by you to not appear on these locations, go ahead and tell me that also.

I already sent a AIM/MSN/ICQ message to a few people asking them about this. Thank you very much!
