You also locked the "GET REBORN BETA HERE" thread, but never even removed the link.
:rolleyes: And of course, you couldn't lock it without thrashing and insulting the mod.

I locked that thread and removed the link. The original poster edited the post to re-add the link. If he does it again, it becomes a ban.

Regarding Roof Gnomes, I moved it to the General forum. I couldn't let a forum tradition like RoofGnomes fall by the wayside, even though I refuse to post in that thread itself.
