after a post as damning as that, one might think you might be inclined to come up with a better defence than "yes i remember you saying it"

Quote:i wouldn't of laughed at it, sure enough u know what to do in a game but it doesn't go that much further, thats why people never accuse you of cheating or doing nerdy shit, because your basic, and so are your tactics most of the time.

basic? just how far into your brain has your anger seeped? do you have any idea how ridiculous you sound? yes you would laugh at comments as insane as this if someone else had said them a week or two ago.

Quote:and i didn't say i was always better than you lol, but im quite sure i was the last time clanwars was 'active...

oh dear, you're still confused (at least, that's the kindest explanation. read my last post about what you always used to say and what you say now, because they're in polar contradiction.

Quote:you have acted like u leave such a giant gap between u and anyone left on this game yet no one else thinks your all that impressive other than yourself and yet nothing i've said has been wrong, has it, hitman? you've tried to explain why it's wrong and you've been shot down every time, haven't you? the fact that you haven't changed your mind nonetheless just demonstrates your ignorance and stubbornness.

Quote:im quite sure u just dont see the whole picture, because someone rather snipe in a public game doesn't mean he's not as good as u i can see you're not going to budge on this point. again, it only shows your stubbornness.

someone who actually helps his team win and succeeds at it is axiomatically a better player than someone who can't be bothered helping the team much, in my submission.

Quote:people like simpee have always been considered better than you by EVERYONE, i am 100% sure he could lead a team just as good as u do if not better then how do we explain my 100% record against him in community matches, for example?

Quote:and im sure i could aswell if i cared enough to talk all the time

There's always an excuse, isn't there?

Quote:while i rather just stick to giving major instructions every now and then as to where we need to go or what we need to do and when to do it, i just dont like telling people what to do all the time, so i just give instructions every couple of minutes, and as far as im concerned they turn out good every time.

really? like those games? complex you didn't say anything at all. volcano you had a 8v6 number advantage all game, and by your own admission, you weren't trying at all. had your team managed to lose this 8v6, which you came within about three seconds of doing, whose fault would that have been? had your team lost Under, which you came within 200 points of doing - and again, you had the number advantage thanks to us having two players who were SBH all game and finished with barely a hundred points between them, do you still think that game would have proven your point? how about field, which we were dominating you until the teams started to get stacked? we had a significant points lead and a dead nod refinery, then suddenly it's 8v5 for some reason and you start to claw your way back. well done. results are results, just think about how much is really being proven here. you just barely won games with a 2-man number advantage, and you think that disproves a damn word i've said in this thread? newsflash, no it doesn't.
