Quote:there's nothing funny about that post. When I made the thread on Nov 10, clanwars was dead. All we had was pub games and any commwars that came up. In the spirit of most of this year, this thread was started to get an opinion on who the best ren player(s) was "NOWADAYS." I even made sure to use "player(s)" plural.

So Spooky's post is nothing to laugh at lol.

Yes, it is something to laugh at. It's fucking hilarious. To say Spooky is in the top 5 is even a stretch. Spooky was never a top 3 player, and still isn't. He was inactive throughout most of clanwar history. Just because he's played 500 public server games in the last couple months, and lead a few groups of noobs to victory against another group of noobs without a good leader, doesn't mean he magically became the best. See, Pubs actually make you rusty because you get used to raping retards instead of someone who can actually dodge a bullet. You then get a false sense of accomplishment and start believing that you're #1. Then some actually skilled players come along, and end up showing whats up.

Hitman is better than Spooky, there's no doubt about that. Hitman makes a bigger difference for his team in a lobby game than Spooky does. Hitman should be in the running for #1 right now. He might not lead a community war, but he can still show up for a series and rape all. Spooky's best skills are his leadership abilities, but they're not good enough to make him #1 player in the game.

PS clanwars might not be dead if Spooky didn't ban the top competition over a personal beef. Spooky killed clanwars, then came over here and started talking about how we're all a bunch of cheating lying retards and he's the best now. He also said 'clanwars died because I quit playing' LOL!

Quote:Who would have guessed that a bunch of thieving lying backstabbing gang of Brutuses and Barabasses from days past would come and write their name with their own shit in this thread? Why in the name of god would anyone mention kill and others who don't play? Your post about kill reaching out for his thick glasses and havoc mousepad cracked me up at work today lol. Kill does play, just not 25/8. He'll play when a competitive match comes up and I ask him, and when he does play, he rapes. I don't know about Simpee, but Hitman plays, and so do I. How come we're 'thieving lying backstabbing gang of Brutuses and Barabasses'? Or was that a joke lol, cuz it sounds funny

Quote:Did you guys read the thread or did I had to put "NOWADAYS" in caps? We know its about nowadays, and Spooky still isn't #1. Remember this is peoples opinions. Its Spooky's opinion that he's #1, and we knew Spooky was arrogant before but this is a whole new level, even for him. When a public server raper claims they're #1, of course the real clanwar players are going to show up and argue that point (and in Hitmans case, own him a few games for good measure). Hitman even challenged Spooky to a true test of individual skill - a CLANWAR, but Spooky has no interest in that. He prefers comm wars - the last commwar that I lead Cw.CC vs RenForums, 6v6, we steam-rolled them with Spooky leading. Then when RGCT2 happened, the only reason RenForums beat Jelly was because Spooky pm'd Me and Kill to play for him (At the time I was probably more a member of the Jelly community, and Kill didn't even have a registered name here). Not very sportsmanlike Spoon, stacking your team to make sure you beat a group of noobs with no leader. You must of been proud. Even the Jelly players were upset about it and made that known.

Quote:Not to mention using a few lousy lobbywar games with questionable standards of testing a player's skill being used to trump over 1+ year of solid gameplay evidence that was Spooky's record? It's always easy to dismiss this as "raping pubs." wow.

1+ year of solid gameplay evidence? What evidence? He's a good leader and lead RenForums to victory, in a tournament that didn't even include clanwars? Congratulations on that, but that doesn't prove he's the best individual player in the game. A top leader, yes. Us actual clanwar players, have 6+ years solid evidence to go on. When things were truly competitive, Spooky wasn't active. Now that clanwars is dead thanks to him, he now believes its safe to claim king of the pub noobs, but sorry mate, it wasn't safe, and now clanwars is here to clean up this mess.

Quote:Could anyone of the lying thieving backstabbing Brutuses and Barabasses we have seen in this thread lead a team of unknown players to victory against well-established teams?

Yes we could, and have

Quote:

And someone tell me how can anyone who says this is more skilled than Spooky?: Spooky's a good leader, but thats about as far as it goes. His actual gameplay is top 10 no doubt, but #1 is what I'm arguing here.

strategy doesn't involve actual skill so not even gonna mention

I am the one who is lmfao.

I'm gonna write that one off as the language barrier lol, because yeah, having good strategy is a skill.

Quote:woa wow? I truly cannot BELIEVE you don't know what he meant, Whiskey?...obviously the best light tank player in the game as well as the best mlr player in the game.

lmao I got that part, I just find it funny someone can claim to be over and above everyone else with a MRLS. MRLS are very easy to drive and handle, and once you know how to properly use one, thats about as far as it gets. Every higher level clanwar player is good in a MRLS. As for light tank, Spooky's been claiming that for years, but I haven't seen anything different about Spooky's light compared to any other high-level player. Remember I'm not saying Spooky isn't good with lights or MRLS, I'm just saying, he's not the #1 player in Renegade.

Quote:Any game on Field with Spooky on GDI, you will know who the "best mlr" is if you were on Nod (most inf kills, most vehicle kills, and almost always the best contributing player pointwise towards the win with mlr). I don't see anything to "giggle" about tbh.

I'm starting to giggle at you, pretending like you have all this Ren-experience when really you have no clue. I've played 10,000 clanwars buddy, I think I know my shit. MRLS are basically generic in a clanwar. The top level players all do the same thing with them. There's no way someone is a 'best MRL', its a joke.

Quote:One game I clearly remember on City_Fly: I was with a Orca all game specifically hunting Spooky but he kept persisting with his light tank/sak. He was raping the PP/Barr over and over and singlehandedly won the game for Nod with pointslead when the rest couldn't have been bothered. I hope you know what a "best light" is now.

That proves it! You're 100% absolutely right. Spooky, I now crown you best Light and best player, in Ren & Life. You won a map on a pub server all by yourself, awesome! You're a big boy now.

Quote:a med driver who can hs inf and kill vehs like a pr0 > than a med tank driver who can hs inf, kill vehs like a pr0 and lead other med tanks in a grand game of in-game strategy to give GDI the win?

wow mate. I disagree.

Any top level clanwar player can and does do that. We played organized games for 6 years, you think we can't lead a match? Come on now noob, you're making yourself look silly
