Keep at it, good chum! Someone might believe you eventually.

That's a pathetic laugh. There's nothing "concrete" or "meticulous" about your hate-babble.

Fight fire with fire, I say.

Starbuzzz wrote on Fri, 07 January 2011 20:30No, it's not considering this is the same "non-physical being" that had to:

- rest on the 7th day after 6 days of shooting out lame one-liners (1 lame one-liner a day).
- feel the need to walk in the garden in the cool of the day
- screw up the human language because he was scared shitless of humans unitedly building a tower to reach him in the clouds and kicking his ass
- send down "chariots of fire" to pick up VIP's (Elijah)

Seriously? He doesn't have to be a physical being to do any of that.
