the graphic is like shitten down and its story is completely different than the one from orginal cysis.

Crysis 1 was/is much much btter than cysis 2 because you could blow everything up and you were able to create natural disasters and the quality is much much much better. And its not eating so much Fps because of the quality rather because of the erros in the codecs

Never played Crysis 1, so I think Crysis 2 is amazing.

As for the video, I got some points to prove out.

You call it Metroid, yet you have Halo characters ingame. You also have a reference to Crysis in the game (the Ceph, I believe).

So Metroid, Halo, and Crysis. Which one is it?

Anyway, the movie was pretty cool. I watched first 10 minutes and skipped to the last 10 minutes. Didn't have time to watch it all.
