I honestly designed it so that it would be usable in Renegade, APB, and UDK. It's really not that big, so it should play better than the current maps in APB due to its smaller size; it should conversely give Renegade players a little bit of breathing room for a change.

I'm not sure what you mean by "on board with MP-gaming". How would I go about doing that?