lol...I played the hell of out of renegade back in the day. When I was fourteen around 2003, I use to play the pitts a nice amount. This one day (can't remember the maps name) I was going down a tunnel with an eng when mgst was at the entrance of the tunnel. I headshot him with a pistol and he instantly banned me. he thought I was cheating cause I didn't have renguard on. it was funny cause at the time, I got the first decade so me and my brother had 2 renegade games now. For some reason i couldn't get renguard on it with first decade. Long story short, i was raging like a typical teen on the internet cause I didn't cheat and everyone on the pitts forums was bashing me because of me being so angry along with the fact i didn't have renguard on . they unbanned me and I played on the server but no one that was part of the pitts said anything too me. even though I did just as good as them a nice chunk of the time . All in all, the pitts was a nice server for its competitiveness but lol....its funny too see this video. karma is a bitch.
