About 3/8 of us saved up for an orca, only to realize it was walls, and not walls_flying. The sad part is that not one of us noticed until we went to go buy one, lol.

I'm not sure I remember that, sounds plausible though.

it's true, lol. i didn't say all save up for orcas though not all, just a few of us. One being me, who didn't realize neither..
