All the others can be treated equally to each other as well, so long as it's far under the treatment of the real Americans. AMERICA FOR AMERICANS. The bottom of the ocean for the rest. I read the bible, and that's basically what god told me. So fuck off dogtree, and go back to the dumbass planet you came from.

This is exactly how I see it. The people coming to America illegally are actually getting benefits of health-care and such... It's ridiculous. I believe that if someone comes to America legally and fairly, and tries to establish themself in the working class, then they can get the benefits of an average American. But, for someone to hop a fucking border and get benefit is bs.
