Seriously go get a fucking life... all you do is nit pick at the smallest things in a post, and in part take away from what the thread is really about, by turning it in to a mother fucking English lesson... This is not a classroom, it's a fucking internet forum....

You act like it is your first day on the internet expecting everyone to use perfect grammar and definitions.

I just felt that needed to be said. kthnx

Chew, in your above statement you have way to many periods ending a sentence. So, before you get bashed by ACK, you better fix your post, making the sentences end with only one period. Also, it's okay, thanks. I'd hate to see anyone else suffer the wrath of the Renforums grammar nazi.
