IceSentryQuote:Actually thats the only part i'll have to disagree with you on. Take in mind these are the new forums, and everyone's post have been wiped clean. I remember this guy (his name.....

I didn't pay attention to the boards much before the wipe. I was basing my facts on after the wipe. So I was wrong there. But Still, ACKs reply to his post was uncalled for. his post should have been ignored, if you repeatedly tried to give advice to him, and he doesnt take the advice, hes should be ignored.

Maybe you should shut the fuck up... You contradict yourself every time you post something.

If you want everyone to get along, and you don't want bad things said - why are you contributing to what you supposedly hate others doing?

Why do you have "ACK is the crappage" in your signature, as well?

Jeez, you moron... Wake up and smell your own hypocrisy.
